

Nelly NLY AB- Animal Welfare Policy

Animal hair and Fur

- We do not accept rabbit hair, including angora rabbit hair.
- We only accept hair from living and domesticated animals including but not limited to goat, alpaca, llama, camel, cow, buffalo, yak, horse and pig.
- We do not allow hair from animals reared in cages for their hair or fur, including but not limited to raccoon, marten, fox, squirrel, sable chinchilla or ferret.
- We do not accept real fur.

Wool

- We do not accept mulesing.
- For wool originating from Australia we require that it is declared as Non-Mulesed wool or Ceased-Mulesed wool according to National Wool Declaration.

Down and feathers

- We do not accept down or feathers from live plucked birds or from farms practicing live-plucking.
- We do not accept down or feathers from farms with force-feeding practices (foie gras).
- We only accept down and feathers from slaughtered birds bred for meat production, with an exception of foie gras production.
- No vulnerable or endangered species must be used.

Leather

- We only accept products made of leather from cow, buffalo, sheep, goat, fish or pig that have been bred for meat production.
- We do not accept leather from aborted animals, including but not limited to slink (unborn calves), karakul, astrakhan, broadtail, persian lamb, swakara or krimmer.
- We do not accept real exotic animal skins, including but not limited to; snake, alligator, crocodile and lizard.

Animal testing

- We do not accept animal testing on any cosmetic products, either during production or on finished products.